

Francine Herman

Francine Herman is Professor Emerita of Hotel Administration, having folded up her academic tent in 1989. She was Secretary of the University Faculty in the 1980s, a mediator and fact-finder for the New York State Public Employment Relations Board from 1973-1991, and was a member of the Cornell 11 Committee. She taught for ILR Extension from 1967 to the early 1970's, receiving an MS degree from Cornell in 1973. Prior to her academic life, she was a local radio commentator in Ithaca (WHCU and WTKO) from 1966 to 1973.