

LERA / ILR Review Best Paper Competition

The Labor and Employment Relations Association (LERA) and the ILR Review are partnering on a joint Best Paper Competition.

Papers will be eligible for consideration if they are based on an accepted LERA submission that will be included in the annual meeting program and if they have not been selected for the LERA/AILR (Advances in Industrial and Labor Relations) Best Paper session. Submitted papers will undergo an initial review by LERA's editorial committee, and a subset of papers will be selected to go through ILR Review's peer review editorial process. Papers that are accepted by the ILR Review will appear in a future volume with a designated section for LERA Best Papers.
