

Agenda for “The Taylor Law @ 50” Conference

May 10 & 11, 2018 – Albany, NY

Planned sessions include:

PLENARIES

1. National and International Comparisons
2. The Potential Legal and Legislative Ramifications of Janus v. AFSCME
3. The Taylor Law over the Years: A Discussion with Former PERB Chairs
4. The Taylor Law and Impasse Procedure: Creative Resolution Despite Protraction

KEYNOTE ADDRESSES

1. Harry Katz
2. Cynthia Estlund

BREAK-OUT SESSIONS

1. Public Sector Labor Relations in Higher Education
2. Considering the Optics of Labor-Management Issues in the Age of Instant Information
3. Has Dispute Resolution Gone Astray? Helping the Process Serve Process
4. New Approaches to Negotiations under the Taylor Law
5. Bargaining for Better Schools in New York State
6. The Triborough Doctrine and Statute: A Catalyst or Hindrance to Harmonious Labor Relations?
7. Injunctive Relief Under the Taylor Law: An Update and Discussion
8. Negotiability and Due Process Beyond Police Discipline
9. Improper Changes and Collective Bargaining: Duty Satisfaction, Contract Reversion and Waiver
10. Half a Century of Managing Collective Bargaining Conflict: The New York Experience and Beyond
11. Jurisdictional Evolution: A Panel Discussion Concerning PERB’s Deferral Policies
12. Police Officers and Collective Bargaining: How Limited Should Bargaining Be About Discipline?
13. Collective Bargaining Under the Taylor Law: New methods for Constructive Dialogue
14. Interest Arbitration and the Taylor Law
15. Comparative Public Sector Unionization and Collective Bargaining
16. Strategies for Adapting to a post-Janus World
17. Expedited Arbitration Procedures: The NY/CSEA Experience

For more details on the planned agenda, visit <http://perb.ny.gov/conference.asp>