Labor Studies Credit Program

The Cornell ILR Online Labor Studies Program provides busy union activists with an opportunity to take college credit courses without regard to their location or work schedules. While there is no physical classroom, there is considerable student-to-student and student-to-instructor interaction, making for lively discussions and group learning.

Courses advance students' knowledge about the issues that matter most to their day-to-day roles and include Collective Bargaining, Labor History, Labor/Employment Law, Conflict Resolution and Contract Administration. Participants can earn a Labor Studies Certificate and/or an Advanced Certificate of Labor Studies.

Adjunct faculty are proud members of the Cornell Adjunct Faculty Alliance, NYSUT, AFT, AFL-CIO. Courses and credits earned in Extension Division programs are not automatically accepted as transfer credits or as a basis of admission to the resident Cornell-ILR programs in Ithaca. Student applications and course transfers are evaluated by universities and colleges on an individual basis.

Requirements

A Certificate of Labor Studies are earned by successfully completing 18 college credits in the following areas

- Law (Private Sector Labor Law or Labor Relations in the Public Sector)- minimum one course
- History (Labor History or Labor & Film)- minimum one course
- Collective Bargaining (Introduction or Advanced Collective Bargaining or Contract Administration)
- Electives (Labor, Government and Politics, Communications, Unions and Diversity, Conflict Resolution, etc.)

Additionally, an Advanced Certificate of Labor Studies are awarded to those who complete the Labor Studies Certificate and an additional 9.0 credits offered in the program in any subject area. Each course carries 3.0 undergraduate college credits.

Our on-line credit classes are structured so that you can log-on at any time each week. Assignments are typically posted weekly during the scheduled course. The system is available 24 hours a day, 7 days a week during the course schedule: Winter, Spring, Summer, or Fall Terms.
